

SKYWARN
LEARN TO BE A SKYWARN
STORM SPOTTER

*The Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management and
the National Weather Service (NWS) – Cleveland presents:*

2017 – SKYWARN SPOTTER TRAINING

Each spring, the National Weather Service Cleveland Office provides training for members of Fire and Police Departments, Emergency Management Officials, Amateur Radio Operators and weather-interested citizens on weather spotting techniques. The training is coordinated by the Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management and is conducted by a National Weather Service Meteorologist. Topics to be covered include:

- Basics of thunderstorm development
- Fundamentals of storm structure
- Identifying potential severe weather features
- How to recognize tornados
- Information to report
- How to report information
- Basic severe weather safety

Location:

Middleburg Recreation Center
16000 Bagley Road
Middleburg Heights, OH
44130

Date/Time:

Wednesday April 12th, 2017
6:30pm - 8:30pm

*Registration will take place at the training.
Please arrive early.

