

Chief's Message

It is an honor and a privilege to serve the community of North Olmsted and our department personnel as Chief of Police. We are a full service police department that prides ourselves on maintaining a high level of integrity and providing the highest quality of police services. I am proud of the men and women of the North Olmsted Police Department and the level of commitment and motivation they show on a daily basis.

Public Safety is our top priority and we want to ensure the City of North Olmsted is a safe place to live, work and visit. Our ability to be successful directly correlates to the strength of partnerships we have created within the community. We strive to enhance the quality of life in North Olmsted through these partnerships with our schools, citizens and business leaders.

On behalf of my command staff, our employees and volunteers, thank you for your interest in the North Olmsted Police Department.

Chief Bob Wagner
CITY of NORTH OLMSTED
